Participants in last Saturday's Torch Run in Mishicot received special t-shirts. Native gal Cindy Bremser, who competed in the 1984 Olympics, was awarded two made-to-order shirts. She sports an extra large one since she is six months pregnant, while her mother, Rose, displays an extra small one for her upcoming grandchild. Both mother and daughter ran the last leg of the Torch Run together.

Photo by Debra Horn